Office Location & Parking: 453 Head Street (West Bay Marina). You may safely park in visitors parking (to the right of the little white marina office). I will meet you in the parking lot 5 minutes before your first appointment to escort you to my office.

TERMS & CONDITIONS: You may attend your first session before you commit to paying a retainer. The retainer is prepaid, and all monies are held in trust for you, thereby making the retainer a “Retainer-in-Trust”. Refunds are available at any time should you choose not to attend the number of sessions specified in your agreement. However, said refunds will be adjusted to reflect the retainer rate for the number of sessions actually attended. Individual receipts will be issued after each session.

*The rate recommended by the British Columbia Psychological Association is currently $220 per 50-minute session. I try to keep my rates below that so people can afford the help they need. I also provide a full 60 minutes per session. Make sure you check with your extended health provider to see if you qualify for coverage. Most plans provide coverage for sessions with psychologists registered with the College of Psychologists of British Columbia (CPBC). Typically, employees have at least $500 of coverage.
